

Life Insurance Settlement

In 1998, the concept of a Life Settlement was introduced. A Life Settlement involves the sale by a senior policy owner (age 65 or older) of an existing life insurance policy for a cash settlement.

This Senior Settlement will be less than the death benefit, but more than the cash surrender value. Individual Benefits is your best source for converting your life insurance policy into cash today.

Talk to your Life Insurance Agent for more information.